

{ AT569 } The Knapsack, the Hat, and the Horn

[D1472.1.22], [D1475.4], [D1475.1], [D1222] .

The youngest of three brothers finds a magic object [D840] , [D1470.1] , exchanges it for another, and by means of the second, secures the first one again [D831] . Objects produce food, soldiers, etc. Makes war against the king. Cf. Type 465A.

Bibliography :

* BP 1 464 (Grimm No. 54);

Coffin 2.

—

Finnish 12;

Estonian 4;

Lithuanian 17;

Swedish (misc.) 2;

Norwegian 1;

Danish 14, Grundtvig No. 61G;

Irish 44, Beal IV 228f. No. 2;

French 5;

Catalan: Amades No. 192, cf. 105;

Flemish 11;

German 18, Meckl. Nos. 34, 79;

Hungarian 10;

Czech: Tille Soupis 1 524f., 532—550, II (1) 294ff., FFC XXXIV 280f. 20;

Slovenian 2;

Russian: Afanasiev 8;

Greek 1, Hahn No. 15;

Turkish: Eberhard-Boratav No. 169 III;

India 2; Indonesian: DeVries No. 191.

—

Franco-American 8;

English-American: Baughman 2;

Spanish-American: Rael No. 225 (U.S.J;

West Indies (Negro) 1;

American Indian: Thompson C Coll II 404, 406, 408.

{###}