

{AT571} »All Stick Together. »

All remain hanging to the magic object: bundle of hay, cow, servant boy, preacher, etc.

I. The Golden Goose.

(a) Of three brothers only the youngest divides food and drink with a hungry man and receives as reward a golden goose; or

(b) he gets the magic animal by a lucky bargain (cf. Type 1415).

II. All Stick Together.

(a) To the magic goose the innkeeper's daughter, who has stolen a golden feather at night, sticks fast, as do also the parson, the sexton, and three peasants.

III. Making the Princess Laugh.

(a) By means of this strange sight or

(b) through three small animals or

(c) the foolish acts of the hero or

(d) other strange sights, the sad-faced princess is made to laugh,

(e) In return for this service the hero is to marry her.

IV. Tasks. Before receiving her he is assigned tasks:

(a) drinking a cellar full of wine,

(b) eating up a mountain of bread,

(c) making a land and water ship. He accomplishes these with the aid of his extraordinary companions. See Type 513.
