

{AT736} Luck and Wealth.

The fish with the jewel. Cf. Types 745, 745A. A poor man gets a piece of tin. He gives it to a fisherman under the agreement that the first catch of fish shall be given to him. In the net is a fish with a precious stone in his body. [N421] .

Bibliography :

Estonian (736*) 1;

Irish 24;

Czech: Tille Soupis I 402ff. 2;

Polish 4, (736A) 6, (736B) 1;

Russian: Andrejev Ukraine 6, Afanasiev 1;

Turkish: Eberhard-Boratav No. 139.

—

Franco-American 1;

Spanish-American: Rael No. 93 (U.S.).

—

Literary Treatments: Chauvin VI 32 No. 202.

{###}

{AT736A} The Ring of Polycrates.

A king throws a ring into the sea. It is found next day in a fish brought to him. [N211.1] .

Bibliography :

*Pauli (ed. Bolte) No. 635;

*Wesselski Monchsleatin 188 No. 146;

* Chauvin V 17 No. 10, 141 No. 68, VI 32 No. 202;

*BP IV 332f., 392;

Toldo VIII 40;

Saintyves »L'Anneau de Polycrate« Revue de Vhistoire des religions (1912) 1—32;

*Loomis White Magic 121.

— Swedish: Liungman SSF III 271, 441;

Irish: *Cross (N211.1);

Norwegian: Solheim 20;

Italian Novella: Rotunda (N211.1);

Serbocroatian (948) 1;

Jewish: *Neuman, *Gaster Exempla 210 No. 118, *bin Gorion Born Judas 2 II 106, 344, III 51, 55, 300;

India (948) 4;

Japanese: Ikeda (N211.1);

Korean: Zong in-Sob 29;

Philippine: Fansler MAFLS XII 7.

—

Portuguese-American (Brazil): Camara Cascudo 164.

—

Africa (Gold Coast):

Barker and Sinclair 133.

{###}